This column discusses the suggested best dates to retire for CSRS and FERS employees during 2020 and 2021, with an updated discussion for best retirement dates during 2019.. Before presenting these dates, it is important to review some retirement rules and issues affecting employees covered by the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) (including CSRS Offset employees) and employees covered by ...Updated 5/1/2019. There are two primary federal retirement systems, the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) and the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS).Currently less than 3% of federal civilian non-postal employees are under the CSRS plan while 91.49% are in FERS.FYI, I retired last Dec. after 38 years. I had used your software for 5 years and had planned exactly where I wanted to be using it. Just wanted to let you know I got my final numbers from OPM several weeks ago and they were within $1.00 of your estimate . Not only did the final estimate help me plan but the insurance portion with respect to FEGLI clearly helped me decide.Last December, we determined that the “best” day to retire in 2011 was December 31, 2011, regardless of whether you are in the CSRS or FERS retirement systems. The concept of “best” is related to financial considerations, specifically maximizing your lump-sum annual leave payment.
