

Download Gis Intern 2015 In South Africa

Julia is a Senior Researcher at the GCRO, with a particular focus on supporting the Quality of Life Survey. She has a long-standing interest in the use of various empirical data, including large-scale surveys, to better understand post-apartheid South Africa. Head Office (x25) DMR-INTERN-01 Mining Engineering, Geographic Information Systems (GIS), LLB, BCom Law, Statistics, Informatics, Mathematics, Environmental Science ...Beauty Mogwe joined Ntiyiso Consulting in November 2015, and serves as a Meter Specialist specialising in monitoring performance and the re-engineering of workflow processes for clients to improve their meter reading and billing quality. Master's degree in food security, development economics, international trade and development, public policy, agricultural economics, information and communications technology, communications, or a related field; a bachelor's degree in a related field with eight years of relevant experience is also acceptable