Introduction. The lesson plan template and the classroom summary were developed to support educators in embedding specially designed instruction (SDI) into lessons that are aligned with the Common Core Learning Standards (CCLS). My Lesson Planner allows you to choose how you see your standards if your state standards are leveled and broken down by grade and subject. For example, if you only teach English in grades 9-12, you can lock your standards down to only see English Standards, or if you teach all subjects in grade 5, you can lock it down so that you only see grade 5 standards. The adjustment to the whole group lesson is a modification to differentiate for children who are English learners. Ask students: Think about the independent book you are reading right now. Raise your hand if you are reading a fantasy book. Historical fiction? Continue to list genres. Tell students ... Enrichment: Challenge advanced students to work with an adult to provide a written description to go with their flag. A fill-in-the-blank template can be used to help students describe their flags. Support: Work with students who are struggling on the concept of a symbol. Begin by defining symbol, and listing some common symbols for the U.S.A. Follow that up with a group discussion about ...
