My Grape Escape by Laura Bradbury is a wonderfully written memoir. My Grape Escape tells the story of newlywed, Canadian Laura and her French husband Franck. With a leap of faith and a generous gift of $40,000 from Laura's Grandfather they decide to purchase an older, stone farm house in the area Franck is from in Bergundy, France. Running from the law to the vineyards of France... My Grape Escape In My Grape Escape , twenty-six-year-old Laura steps off the path to a prestigious legal career in London and into a Revolutionary-era ruin in the Burgundian town of Beaune with her new husband, Franck. Laura's tale of her escape to the vineyards of France is told with humour and a large dollop of honesty. It allows readers to travel to France without needing to buy a plane ticket!
