In New York State security Guards are private citizens who are employed by private companies. Private security Guards, whatever their legal authority, perform their functions to further the policies of their employers or clients. It is the company that hires security Guard that determines the tasks of the security Guard. Private security in the United States began in 1857, when the Pinkerton Detective Agency was formed. Definitions that pertain to the various aspects of security are reviewed. Lastly, it is emphasized that security should be considered as more service oriented rather than approaching it from a “tough-guy” perspective. The private security industry works together with the administering agency, the Department of Public Safety Standards and Training, to improve the professionalism in the private security industry and thereby increase the public trust. The original bill, SB60, was initiated by the private security industry, specifically the Essentially though, the Manual is designed to equip private security companies with useful, relevant, and informed knowledge, skills, and capacity to undertake the important task of effective and efficient operation and management within the framework of National Security.
